Re: United States v. Jabbar McLean, 21 Cr. 744 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern:

The parties respectfully request that the Court adjourn the December 9, 2024, admission hearing and sentencing and the parties' December 2, 2024, deadline to make sentencing submissions in the above-captioned violation of supervised release ("VOSR") matter. The Court had previously set these dates after the parties informed the Court that they had reached a resolution of the VOSR matter, but needed additional time because defense counsel was experiencing a medical emergency. See ECF No. 48. The undersigned conferred with defense counsel today, and defense counsel continues to be experiencing a medical emergency that has affected his ability to prepare for the appearance and to prepare a sentencing submission. In light of this, the parties respectfully request that the Court adjourn the December 9, 2024, court appearance and December 2, 2024, deadline by approximately two to four weeks to a date convenient for the Court. This will give defense counsel time to prepare and for the parties to further confer. The Government requests that the conditions of the defendant's bail be continued for that time.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
